Match No. 13

Date: 8th November 2009.

Venue: Stallance Reservoir, Sutton Valence, Kent. (Venue Change)

Conditions: With a wet stormy night the local roads were flooded & the venue was very 'damp', care was needed in parking. A cold cloudy day with a biting wind that chilled some of the competitors through to the bone. Those out of the wind were able to fish the pole easily but not necessarily that productively. With all the rain both reservoirs water levels were full & coloured.

Summary: (Venue change as the River Beult at Hunton was still covered with duckweed.) Despite a few of the regulars missing again a reasonable turn out. It was a case concentrating on the pole for Roach & Crucians or trying for the carp on feeder; a gamble for Don, Kevin & several of the others that didn't pay off! However Barry, Richie & Alex were able to locate a few carp to return some reasonable weights, caught on either pellet or maggot. Quite a few anglers had to take a break & walk round to warm up in the cold wind. This water contains a good head of Roach but no big bags this time however Colin did net a 1½ lb specimen.
