2010 Summer Evening Match.

Match No. 3

Date: 9th August 2010.

Venue: Stallance Reservoir (Small), Sutton Valance, Kent.

Conditions: A damp overcast evening, darkness descended very quickly. By 9.00 pm it was completely dark, the weigh in carried out by torch light.

Summary: Being the larger reservoir level was well down it was decided to hold it on the smaller one where the level is always topped up. The main fish caught were Carp from 2" to 4lb & seemed to be in abundance followed by Roach & a few small Perch. Pole & waggler being the chosen weapons with pellet & maggots being the most successful bait. Neil was fortunate in drawing a productive swim at the bottom end & made the most of it with a good bag of carp. A different story for Don who in a good point's position only had to catch a few reasonable fish to win the series outright; nothing is guaranteed in fishing, he had a poor evening struggling to even get a bite! & so ended up sharing the trophy with Barry. Despite the weather there was plenty of friendly banter & mickey taking. Best quote of the match by Alex "Hey I'm getting a lot more bites now its dark & I can't see my float!" There were a few unprintable replies that echoed out over the reservoir!
