Match No. 7

Date: 6th July 2008.

Venue: River Beult, Cross-at-Hand, Kent.

Conditions: A windy, cloudy but bright start to the day that then deteriorated with a gale blowing & heavy rain coming along about mid morning.

Summary: A reasonable turn out with high hopes for some good weights but for the majority it turned out to be hard work! This time we used the first & second fields in an attempt to find the fish. The adverse weather conditions just about beat all, the gale made pole fishing an act of strength rather than precision fishing, once again a certain competitor suffered a broken pole; the wind was so strong at times that it even made the use of brollies impossible, most having to sit it out in their waterproofs, only Don was afforded some shelter being on peg 1 right near the bridge. Dave finally won it with one good Tench taken on sweet corn!
