Sid Flood Memorial Roach Match.

Date: 18th June 2006.

Venue: River Beult, Hawkenbury, Kent.

Conditions: A very hot day; the river being in excellent condition at the moment with lots of fish showing.

Summary: Despite a low turn out everyone had a good days fishing although not everyone caught Roach, the main quarry.
Despite not being able to weigh in any Roach, Richard Leeson was reported to have had 30+ catch of nice Rudd, pity it wasn't a normal match!
Some nice Chub around the 1lb mark were caught by a few competitors with Barry loosing a couple of good fish in the lilies. A lot of Rudd & Perch caught with plenty of Pike present!
A rather hot day with umbrellas being needed to provide shade, a certain person who decided to wear shorts ended up with burnt legs!
The River looks rather good at the moment & well worth a fish, early morning or evening should prove the most productive. The only problem at the moment is getting to the swims as the grass is rather tall & wet first thing!
