2010. "Sid Flood Memorial Roach Only" Comp.

Date: 20th June 2010.

Venue: River Beult, Cross at Hand, Kent.

Conditions: A cloudy cool start to the day with the continuing very strong cold NE wind however it warm up during the remainder of the day with sunny spells. These conditions have had a marked effect on the fishing. The water was very clear with very little flow, clear of duckweed at present, fortunately the cold weather conditions have put back the growth.

Summary: Again a good turn out for this event despite the poor results of the Wednesday evening match. For a lot of the competitors the wind blew straight down the river against the flow, this made it difficult for the pole & waggler user. Despite this quite a few had mixed bags of Roach, Rudd, Perch, Bleak & Skimmers on various baits of Maggot, Pinkies, Hemp, Corn & Casters. Targeting just the Roach wasn't easy, some found it difficult to even get a bite. Kevin & Tony both had a try for the Pike, Tony had a couple of missed takes & Kevin had four before finally connecting with a 6 pounder! It was great to see Mark Chapman back managing to fish one of our matches again, on holiday visiting his father Dave.
