Venue: Linton Park Lake

Conditions: Weather for a change was kind sunny days with a slight easterly breeze turning cold at night with mist.

Draw: This took place at 5pm Friday, with Jason- again picking no 1.

The swim choices were:-

Pete & Glen	-	The Point
Darren Taylor	-	The Beach
Jason	-	Mid wood
Malcolm	-	End wood
Jon	-	Stile bay
Garry	-	Dam wall
Mower-man	-	Oaks
Martin	-	Boat house bay

The Match:

Once every one had settled in there swims the first bit of action was to Darren up in the beach with a 12.5 common, shortly after Martin landed a 14.4 common. Half hour later spookily Jason also managed a 14.4 common. As the night drew on Jason hooked into a 19.10 common which didn't want to come in. Glen in the early hours managed to get on the board with a 6.8 common which gave Pete some amusement. Saturday morning arrived with Darren taking a 15.3 common to add to a 14.11 he had during the night, Malcolm landed a 15.2 and Jon 10.0 both commons. Saturday went by with Jason loosing one, Martin loosing a couple so with evening fast approaching Garry Pete and Mower-man still blanking. The night saw Daz extend his lead and Garry producing a 16.10 mirror and Jon picking up a 9.2 and Martin a 12.4 common.

Sunday, Daz landed another common of the reeds, Glen produced one to take him into second and finally Pete managed to save the blank with a mirror of 15lb. The match finished at 4pm.

The Results:

1.	Darren	82 lb 1oz
2.	Glen	39 lb 0oz
3.	Jason	33 lb 10 oz
4.	Martin	26 lb 8oz
5.	Jon	19 lb 2oz
6.	Garry	16 lb 10oz
7.	Malcolm	15 lb 2ozs
9.	Pete	15 lb 0oz
10.	Alan 'mower man' Clarke	finishing sadly with a blank.

Summary:

There was 257 lb of carp caught over this match, all competitors enjoyed the weekend.

Thinking of next year holding a couple on other waters, as with limited swims the park can only really hold 10 max... So well done Daz and he got away without being thrown in!
