2010 Summer Evening Match.

Match No. 1

Date: 16th June 2010.

Venue: River Beult, Cross-at-Hand, Kent.

Conditions: Bright sunny clear afternoon but with a cold NNE wind. Water was very clear with hardly any flow. Good news, no duckweed yet!

Summary: Once again the glorious 16th arrives when the rivers open. Despite a good turn out the weather conditions made it hard to catch. The Bream & Tench did not show so most had to resort to the silver fish by using the pole or waggler. Fortunately for most the wind was at their backs so aided casting & fishing the far bank. The draw was at 6.00pm. As it was a bright sunny afternoon we had decided to fish till 9.30pm. Only being dressed for summer a decision some of us regretted because of the bitter cold Arctic North wind. Most bags consisted of Roach, Rudd, Bleak, Skimmers & Perch taken on Maggot, Pinkies or Casters. Quite a few struggled for even a bite, Alex for one & when Steve Martin walked round just visiting, borrowed his pole & started flicking out Bleak Alex threatened to throw him in! All in all a poor result for the start of the season!
